Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, The mission of Girl Scouting is to inspire girls with the highest ideals of character, conduct, patriotism and service that they may become happy and resourceful citizens; and,

Whereas, Girl Scouting is a value-rooted, people centered organization whose aim is to build better people, and to teach girls responsibility, cooperation, civic pride and respect for self and others; and,

Whereas, Kelly Kramlich has earned the highest award in Girl Scouting, the Girl Scout Gold Award, symbolizing outstanding accomplishments in the areas of leadership, community service, career planning and personal development; and,

Whereas, Kelly has demonstrated leadership skills and acted as a role model to fellow Girl Scouts; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognize and commemorate Kelly on her outstanding accomplishments of receiving the Girl Scout Gold Award:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 23, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join Kelly's parents and her leaders of Girl Scouts in congratulating Kelly on this momentous occasion.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
